

Position title: Diamond and carbide setter – Afternoon shift 2.30 pm to 11 pm
(Fulltime 40 hours/ week), Offdays on weekdays

Duties and responsibilities:

The setter works in a team.

Insert and set very small diamonds and carbides (millimetres) and other materials onto small carbon molds.

Check that the finished assembly is according to the product specification and work order.

Other housekeeping duties in the setting room.

Requirements:

Good eyesight and steady hands.

Able to work flexible shifts.

High school level English preferred.

Some production experience (similar or textile industries) is an advantage. Training will be provided.

Must not be allergic to dust or metal compounds.

Able to work sitting down or standing up for the duration of the shift. No other back limitations.

Must have current legal working status in Canada.